FAQs

I love to sing, but I can't read music. Is that a problem?

No! You do not need to be able to read music; much more important is enthusiasm.

Do I have to have an amazing singing voice?

No! A love of singing is all you need. You do not have to be an opera singer!

Do I have to have religious background?

No! The primary function of the church choir is to lead the singing on Sunday morning, but you do not need to be 'holier than thou'!

Will it cost me anything?

No! It is completely free, and comes with many benefits!

Being a CwAS Chorister...

Singers belonging to the choir at Christ with All Saints' Heaton Norris work hard, sing hard and laugh harder! We attend a rehearsal in the church each Sunday (except the second Sunday of each month) between 10:00am and 11:00am during term time. During these rehearsals we learn and practise a wide variety of music from very ancient to very modern! This is followed by a break for a drink and a snack.

The choir then sing at the 11:30am service each Sunday (except the second Sunday of each month) during term time. There is a very strong social life too!

Choir members wear black and white robes which they are given when they join.

About us...

Being an adult or child in the choir brings many benefits. It is widely known that singing in a choir improves well-being, self-confidence and teamwork, as well as providing a fine introduction to a rich variety of music in a friendly environment. It will also improve your social life and is a lot of fun!

VOICE for LIFE

The singers in CwAS choir are also offered additional vocal and general musical tuition following the Voice for Life training scheme from the Royal School of Church Music, equivalent to children having music lessons at no cost. Leading to...

Free instrument lessons...

In addition to the above benefits, any children who join the choir at Christ with All Saints' are entitled to free instrumental tuition from visiting teachers from the Royal Northern College of Music. Instruments available are brass, flute, clarinet, violin, cello, piano and church organ. The church possesses a number of instruments which are available to children on free loan.
